Customer Reviews

I collect children's Christmas books and this is a new favorite in my collection. I have many books that recount the manger story, but this one stands out. The artist, Deborah Perez-Stable, chose to depict children in a Christmas pageant representing all of Bethlehem's finest folk. The result is heartfelt. Not only that, but Chaconas' rhyming text sings with a beauty all its own.

The rhymes in the story are musical and sweet. The illustrations alone are worth buying the book for. Enjoy! This book is a treat.

That Blessed Christmas Night is a lovely recounting of the events that occurred on the night Jesus was born. Dori Chaconas' rhyming verses have a gentle, song-like quality that paint a peaceful picture of that first Christmas night. The illustrations, which show the characters as young children in a Chrismas Pageant, are beautifully done. The detailed pencil-work of Deborah Perez-Stable results in remarkably life-like illustrations. This is truly one of my favorite Chrismas books.

This is a nice book to use as a Christmas Program. Don't forget to get permission from the publisher.

Beautiful Christmas book
